United Protestant Association of NSW Limited (UPA)

UPA Mission

Our mission is to offer care of the highest possible standard consistent with UPA’s Christian commitment and the expectations of society.

UPA Values

Compassion Respect
Integrity Kindness

U United – working together much can be achieved.

P Protestant – Christian Values.

Today we draw from our Protestant heritage sound Christian values which guide our work. Throughout UPA, whether as a volunteer, staff member, resident or client people from all walks of life and all religious persuasions are welcome.

A Association – A strong network.

UPA is made up of 11 Districts bound together under the one mission and structure. Since our foundation the principle of local governance, management and administration has been maintained. Working co-operatively UPA has built a strong growing association of like minded people providing a network of care services throughout NSW.

OUR OBJECTS ARE:

- To promote care based on Christian principles demonstrating the love of God as revealed in Jesus Christ.
- To offer within a Christian environment, services and facilities for people in need, including aged and or disabled people, disadvantaged children, young people and families.
- To offer care of the highest possible standard, consistent with the UPA’s Christian commitment acknowledging the demands and expectations of society and government at all levels, without regard to gender, marital status, ethnic status, or religion.

We thank you for your interest in applying for membership as this reflects a commitment to the work of UPA.

Your signature on the Application Form indicates that you subscribe to the objects of UPA and agree to be bound by the Constitution of the United Protestant Association.
