

Astill Court- Retirement Living at its Finest

Astill Court Retirement Village is located in leafy East Orange adjoining Newman Park. With landscaped gardens, lovely communal areas and a deck overlooking the village, our residents enjoy a relaxed lifestyle and safe environment.

Each unit has been architecturally designed with two-bedrooms, two bathrooms and plenty of living space. The village has been designed to accommodate Ageing in Place with Community and in-home services available for residents who may require assistance to remain living independently.

What Astill Court living will offer you!

- Spacious living areas with high ceilings and quality fixtures and fittings
- Modern kitchen
- Reverse cycle air-conditioning
- Garages with internal access and remote-control door
- Main bedroom with ensuite
- Walking distance to shopping centre and post office
- Local management
- 24 hour maintenance service and security including medi-alerts
- Community Centre with library and chapel
- Social Activities Programme: bus trips, morning teas, carpet bowls to name a few
- Reliable public transport access – buses, taxi and community transport
- Pathway of care

UPA Central West Region has units available so make an appointment with our Retirement Village Coordinator to discuss the best option for you. Contact Amanda on 6362 7820 or email amandab@centralwest.upa.org.au

Please note: You may have to pay a departure fee when you leave this village.